On October 18, 1956, she was united in marriage to Floyd Earl Henderson, and they shared fifty-three years before his passing on November 17, 2009.

She was also preceded in death by her parents; a grandson, Michael Climer; and eleven brothers and sisters.

Carol is survived by three sons, Ron Storberg, of Akron, Ohio, Randy Storberg, and his wife, Vicki, of Richland, Missouri, and Floyd D. She was born and raised in Wisconsin, and met her husband there. After she and Floyd were married, they made their home in various locations while Floyd served in the United States Army. They lived in Germany, and at Fort Benning, Georgia, Fort Carson, Colorado, Fort Polk, Louisiana, Fort Huachuca, Arizona, and Fort McCoy, Wisconsin. During these years, Carol was a devoted homemaker to her husband and family, and was a supportive military wife. When Floyd retired, the family moved to Lebanon, Missouri.

In her spare time she liked camping and loved to cook for her family and friends.

She enjoyed making trips to see the shows in Branson, Missouri, and attending the
