married Harold. She was a homemaker and had also worked for many years at Bill's Dollar Store and Casey's General Store both in Mansfield.

Earline had attended the Church of Christ when her health permitted.

She loved to listen to Elvis and watch John Wayne movies. In her spare time she enjoyed crossword puzzles, riding horses and caring for her dog "Peanut".

Earline was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and will cherish the many memories we had with her.

Dear Lansdown Family,I am sorry for the loss of your loved one, Earline. During this difficult time many people have a lot of unanswered questions. Knowing Earline's love for animals such as her dog peanut, her religion, and mind provoking things as crosswords and puzzles, lets everyone see her intelligent thinking,kindness and love for the Creator. I have found comfort in the scriptures, Jesus taught us to pray for his kingdom at Matthew 6:9 and Psalms 37:11 gives a great and wondrous hope, it reads, But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth and will indeed find their exquisite delight in abundance of peace. Thank you for letting me share this with you and your family. If you would like to learn more on what hope the bible has for our dead loved ones, please see our website: www.jw.org.(This is not a solicitation) Thank you Earline is remembered as a caring and yet still tough woman. You didn't mess with her kids, biological or not (even though her kids are more than able and willing to stand up for what they believe is right). Her strong spirit will live on, shown through the personalities of her kids. They have passed it to their kids and it will continue to be passed on throughout the generations.
