Rosemary L. Jones (Seymour)

MAR 10, 1920 - MAY 31, 2013

Rosemary (Lang) Jones, daughter of Otis and Della Mary (Kaufman) Lang, was born March 10, 1920 in Annapolis, Indiana. She was called home to her heavenly reward on Friday evening, May 31, 2013 in her home near Seymour, Missouri at the age of ninety-three years, two months and twenty-one days.

She is preceded in death by her husband George Everett Jones in February of 1973; her parents; and her son-in-law Dwayne Miller.

Rosemary is survived by her daughters Georgeann McGinness and husband Dennis of Seymour, Missouri and Mina Hostetler and husband Allen of Seymour, Missouri; her son Jeffery William Jones of Ava, Missouri and her “special” son David Box of the home; her grandchildren Gerald Miller and wife Abigail, Chelsea Miller and Jennifer McGinness, all of Seymour, Missouri, as well as a host of other dear family and friends.

Raised up in Indiana, Rosemary knew at an early age that children would play a special role in her life. She held a master’s degree in business as well as mental health, both tools she used in her calling to be the director of the Countryside Gardens Children Home of Seymour, Missouri for over twenty years. She also owned and operated the Countryside Garden’s Bulk Food’s Store. Over the years she raised chicken to sell eggs.

Faith was a cornerstone for Rosemary during many of the trials of her life. She raised her family to know and serve Lord Jesus. Rosemary devoted her life to serving children with special needs, knowing that she received more than she could ever give. She was a member of the Liberty Freewill Baptist Church of Seymour, Missouri, enjoying watching the young people grow in their faith.

Rosemary enjoyed raising and watching things grow- the animals on her family farm, the plants in her garden, her children and grandchildren. A nurturing heart, guiding hands and an unwavering strength, Rosemary produced good fruits in her

I lived in the area from 2005 until 2009. I shopped as often as possible at Countryside and all my eggs came from Rosemary, as did my grain (she taught me to grind my own grain and make my own flour) for my home baked bread. She also taught me the different grains so I could make things with other grains beside wheat. I am making plans to return to the area this coming weekend and was going to stop to see her. I am so very sad to hear she passed but I know she lived a good and happy life, surrounded by those who loved her and those she loved. She talked often of the days with George and raising her own kids as well as all those she helped who were unwanted by others or those who were unable to care for special needs children. She was very protective of those she loved and I only met "her boys" after coming around for over a year. She was very careful not to allow contact by anyone who would bring harm to her or to those around her. She had a sharp wit, a sharper tongue and an insight into people which is not easily matched. I will miss her. I have an apron she had for years which was in the store. When I asked to purchase it she laughed and said, "that old thing? Why, I have worn that for years and years. It has no monetary value." I told her it was just like one my mother wore when I was a kid and she said, "then your mother would want you to have it. Just remember me along with your mother when you wear it." I treasure that apron and think of both of them whenever I wear it. Thanks to her family for sharing her with us. I know her daughter lived nearby and she talked of how proud she is of her family and the wonderful things they do for others.
