Dear Rodney, You were certainly one walking with God. Your advice was golden, you smile additive, your zest unending. One of a kind you are. You know how you said that Ms. Olivia was the Angle, well, I truly believe that you are also an Angle sent to help others through there trials upon this earth,. Just think of how much more work you can get done now. You will be touching hearts for many many many years to come. Remember to reach down and hold Mom often. She will need that, but in the end, as you told me also, She is a very very very strong woman. But when you lose such a beautiful baby boy as you, she will need your help. We will see each other again some day in this long long path we must follow. Until then I will reflect on all the wisdom and peace you shared with me. Love you Rodney. p.s. Don't forget the others, they all will need you from time to time.
