Dalilah Dunker (Lebanon)

FEB 14, 1987 - JUN 15, 2014

Dalilah Lauren Dunker was born February 14, 1987, in Shawnee Mission, Kansas. She departed this life Sunday, June 15, 2014, in her home, in Osage Beach, Missouri, at the age of twenty-seven years, four months, and one day.

On May 5, 2013, she was united in marriage to Patrick K. Cashell.

Dalilah is survived by her husband, Patrick, of Eldon, Missouri; two sons, Corbin Witham and Gage Witham, both of Eldon, Missouri; a daughter, Daviah Cashell, of Eldon, Missouri; her mother, Diane Dunker, of Olathe, Kansas; a brother, Jake Kosman, of the State of Texas; her maternal grandparents, Harold and Barbara Dunker, of Lebanon, Missouri; several nieces and nephews; a number of aunts, uncles, and cousins; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was born and raised in Olathe, Kansas, and then lived her last teenage years in Lebanon, Missouri. She had lived most of her adult years in the Eldon community.

Dalilah was a devoted homemaker to her family and a loving and caring mother.

Dalilah had made her profession of faith in Christ at the age of fifteen, and she was a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

She enjoyed making jewelry and sharing it with her family and friends. She liked traveling and enjoyed having time with her friends. She had recently enjoyed living on the Lake and fishing. She made her children the center of her life, always had a smile and was generous in every way. She possessed a big, loving heart.

Dalilah was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, granddaughter, and was a caring neighbor and friend. She will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by all those who knew and loved her.
