Chester and I would like to express our deepest sympathy to Mary's family. She was a sweet woman, whom I enjoyed visiting with at the care center. She always had a smile and a twinkle in her eye. I'm so glad that I met her!

Whether you called her daughter, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, sister-in-law, cousin, neighbor, friend, etc. Mary was truly an angel. She always had room for one more, whether in her heart or her home. She truly loved her family. She will missed by all. Good-bye sister, until we meet again in heaven. I love you. Brenda Barker
