had made her home in Sedalia, Missouri, where she worked as a housekeeper for various motels, including the Sandman Motel.

Rosalie had professed her faith in Christ and was a member of the Pentecostal Church of God.

She was an excellent Southern style cook and was especially known for her fried chicken, pies and cakes. She always put her faith and her family at the center of her life and dearly loved her children and all of her grandchildren. She greatly enjoyed her pet dogs, "Tobby" and "Maggie".

Rosalie was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and know that her family and friends will cherish the wonderful memories she created for them during her ninety-eight years.

Memorial donations may be made to the Stephens Cemetery and left at the funeral home
