Jeffery W. Scott (Lebanon)

MAY 3, 1958 - FEB 1, 2015

Jeffery William Scott, son of William Arlie and Connie Young Scott, was born May 3, 1958, in Lebanon, Missouri. He departed this life Sunday, February 1, 2015, in his home, in Lebanon, Missouri, at the age of fifty-six years, eight months, and twenty-eight days.

On November 4, 2012, he was united in marriage to Laurie Anne Gillis Lewis, and they shared the last two years.

His father preceded him in death.

Jeffery is survived by his wife, Laurie, of the home; his children, Shayla Evans, and her husband, Josh, and Eli J., all of Lebanon, Missouri; a grandchild, Zoey Rose Evans; his mother, Connie Scott, of Lebanon, Missouri; a sister, Judy Sanders, of Lebanon, Missouri; several nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

He was raised in the Lebanon and Drynob communities, and received his education there. He had worked for various boat manufacturing companies during his life time. Jeffery professed his faith in Christ early in his life at Glad Tidings Pentecostal Church. He had a very spiritual side and had preached and testified at different times in his life.

He was a huge fan of Harley Davidson motorcycles and loved riding. He was a poet at heart and was also a gifted writer and artist. He played the guitar and French harp, which he learned from G.P. Scott. He was very tender hearted and loved being a "Papa". He was very friendly and never met a stranger.

Jeffery was a loving husband, daddy, papa, son, brother, uncle, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We know he will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by all those who knew and loved him.

I knew Jeff as Bo, met him when I first moved to Lebanon in 1991 where we worked together at Lowe/OMC. Great guy, funny! My ex husband's name is Jackie, Bo called him Jillie, as in Jackie and Jillie. He always brought joy! So very sorry for your loss. RIP

Jeff, we let time and years keep us from those who we spent many years with each day in school, after school and other events. Those people , like you Jeff, left a mark on us that helped mold who we are today. You loved being you and we loved you for that. It seems tht God tends to take those who make us feel the most, before others. You will be missed and Laurie, and kids, I pray for your pain to be eased by the loving thoughts and adoration of those whose were touched in some way by Jeff.

Jeff was the tallest boy in our 6th grade class that was my first year in the Lebanon School district. He was my first boyfriend in Lebanon which of course lasted about 2 weeks being the new girl. His last name being Scott and mine Shumate we sat by each other a lot during the rest of our school years. He was funny, smart and a gentleman who was always up to something. Everywhere you saw Jeff you would see Brent his best friend through the years. Wish we would of stayed in contact goodbye to a great person.

Growing up as Jeff's younger cousin, and a girl to boot, I was on the receiving end of many of his pranks. He was always teasing and doing something to make me mad. Yet I adored him. He was onery, but had one of the kindest souls. I remember trying to ride my bike without holding the handle bars, because Jeff could. I tried to follow he and my brother everywhere, and on a good day, they might actually let me hang with them. He remained my idol into adulthood and I don't think he ever knew how wonderful I thought he was. Thank you Jeff, for all the childhood memories. And I forgive you for locking me up in the pop-up camper. I probably was being a real brat that day. Love you, cousin. Say Hi to Uncle Bill, Grandma Hess and Dad for me.
