Judy, the oldest of seven children, was born in Texas and spent her early childhood years in New Mexico. She moved with her parents and siblings to Diggins, Missouri, where they bought a farm. She lived the rest of her years in the Seymour/Diggins area. She was a homemaker for her husband and children, and a caregiver for her mother-in-law, Florence Cornelison, who was wheelchair-bound for 40 years, and for her daughter, Betty, who had health challenges. would fix a meal for them. Everyone always looked forward to her Sunday family dinners that she prepared, and she hosted Thanksgiving and Christmas in her home well into her 90's. She was a very special lady that was famous for her roast, fried chicken and mashed potatoes.

In her spare time she enjoyed gardening and canning tomatoes, green beans, pickled beets and pickles and she shared with everyone. She loved to travel and gamble, going with J.D. and Patsy Burks to Tunica, Mississippi, and the Alton Belle Riverboat in Alton, Illinois, and could spend the whole day on her $20.00 limit. Judy was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt and a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her long life and will always cherish the wonderful memories and meals we had together.
