Gabriella Ayala

MAR 10, 1998 - OCT 16, 2011

Gabriella Lynne Ayala, 13, and Daniella Marie Ayala, 15, both of Bolivar Missouri, joined their heavenly father on October 15th, 2011. Gabi was born on March 10, 1998 in Bolivar, Missouri and was an 8th Grader at the Bolivar Middle School. Daniella was born on November 27, 1995 in Ventura, California and was a 10th Grader (Sophomore) at the Bolivar High School. Gabi was a vivacious, outgoing, fun-loving and compassionate young lady. She always saw the brighter side of life and brought that trait out in others with her dramatic flare. She was active in school activities and her church youth group. Gabi was a devoted sister and an extremely helpful aunt to her beloved niece. Daniella was an exceptional student who took pride in her studies. She had many nicknames and was a treasured friend and confidant of many. Daniella was involved in cross-country and was one of a few sophomores enrolled in a dual credit class. She aspired to be a pediatrician. Daniella enjoyed fashion and had an infectious laugh. She also was an avid reader and photographer. Known for her kindness with a big heart, she was a beloved nanny to her brother Sam. They both are survived by their mother, Lisa Bridges-Ayala and recently deceased father, Marcos Sanchez Ayala. They are also survived by their older sister, Alex; niece, Adriana; and younger brother, Sam; maternal grandparents, Barbara Mayfield, and Anthony Bridges (deceased); paternal grandparents, Louis Ayala and Manuela Ayala; great grandparents, Ray and Jean Cantrell; several aunts and uncles, and numerous cousins. Both Daniella and Gabi had wisdom beyond their years and cherished spending time with their family. They had an extreme love for life. Many will sorely miss Daniella and Gabi.
