Ethel was born in Texas and spent most of her early years in the Seymour and Garland areas. After she and D.N. were married, they lived in California, Utah, Arizona and Southwest Texas. In 1965, they moved to Wright County, Missouri where they owned and operated a dairy farm. Ethel was of the Baptist faith and in her younger years had attended Calvary Baptist Church in Seymour, Texas. She centered her life on her family and took great pride in raising her children and maintaining the farm with her husband. Ethel was a wonderful woman with a great sense of humor, and in her spare time, enjoyed singing, writing poetry, making various crafts, going bowling with her friends and playing bingo. Ethel was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and aunt, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and accomplishments and will cherish the wonderful memories she has created for her family and many dear friends. Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Monday, January 7, 2008, in the Holman-Howe Chapel, Hartville. Burial will be in the Moore Cemetery. Visitation will be held Sunday evening from 7 - 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Holman-Howe Funeral Home of Hartville, Missouri. Return to top
