Elizabeth Whittenburg (Lebanon)

SEP 18, 1912 - MAR 23, 2016

Elizabeth Whittenburg, daughter of Peter and Rady Welty Ramban, was born September 18, 1912, in Parma, Missouri. She departed this life Wednesday, March 23, 2016, in Chestnut Terrace, in St. Peters, Missouri, at the age of one hundred three years, six months, and five days.

In 1972, she was united in marriage to Newell J. Whittenburg who preceded her in death on February 9, 1979.

She was also preceded in death by her parents; and three sisters.

Elizabeth is survived by several step-grandchildren, step-great-grandchildren, and step-great-great-grandchildren; a niece; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was raised in the Dexter, Missouri area. After the tragic death of her father, she was raised by Benjamin and Florence (Miller) Young. In 1940, she moved to Lebanon and made her home. She had worked as a calligrapher for the railroad for several years, and then worked at various jobs as a sales clerk. After she and Newell were married, Elizabeth was a devoted homemaker to her husband and family.

Elizabeth professed her faith in Christ early in her life and was a longtime member of Lebanon Church of the Nazarene. She enjoyed the fellowship her church offered. In her spare time she enjoyed quilting and working in her garden. Elizabeth was a sweet, little lady that loved her family dearly and cherished her friends. She will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Memorial contributions may be made to Claws and Paws, and left at the funeral home.

I knew Elizabeth as "Aunt Lizzie" as she was the aunt of my mother in law, Florence Rickman Hollingsworth. Aunt Lizzie was feisty, articulate and never hesitated to let you know what she thought. She had a rough childhood but was fortunate in her spouses. Her quilts were beautiful. I shall remember her smile. I was unaware until now that she had passed as I happened on her obituary on Ancestry.com. Our family send condolences to all those who remember her and cared for her. It must have been a joyous celebration in heaven when she was reunited with all those who had gone before including my mother in law and father in law, Florence and Leo.

I am so sorry for the families loss. I have known Elizabeth for many years and loved her dearly. We went to church together and she also knew me as her Orthopedic nurse. She loved the Lord and loved all that was around her. She was a spunky little lady with an attitude that I admired. I loved just visiting with her so much. She is no doubt celebrating in heaven with many that have past before her. My mother & father for one who loved Elizabeth. God bless you all.

Miss Elizabeth was a woman of inspiration. I admired her for her honesty and had the pleasure of knowing her for only a short time. She will be forever missed and always loved. Prayers to the Family, as they too were part of my Chestnut family.
