Brenda Dianna Shell, daughter of Francis Marion and Rosetta Jane Kelso West, was born September 15, 1955, in Iberia, Missouri. She departed this life Sunday, May 15, 2016, in her home, near Lebanon, Missouri, at the age of sixty years, and eight months.

On February 24, 1972, she was united in marriage to William Charles Shell, Sr., and to this union two sons were born.

She was preceded in death by her father; and her step-father, John Haskin.

Brenda is survived by her husband, William "Bill", of the home; two sons, William C. "Will" Shell, Jr., and his wife, Rebecca, of Clearwater, Kansas, and Frank Shell, and his wife, Jaimee, of Olathe, Kansas; five grandsons, Nathan, Kevin, Austin, Collin, and Gabriel; a great-granddaughter, Payton; her mother, Rosetta Haskin, of Lebanon, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and many friends.

She was born and raised in the Waynesville and St. Robert area, and attended Waynesville Schools. After she and Bill were married, they lived in Wisconsin for a few years, and then moved to Richland, Missouri for twelve years. They made their home in Wichita, Kansas for four years, returned to Richland, and then later moved to Lebanon, where they spent the last eight years. Through the years, Brenda was a devoted homemaker to her husband and family, and also helped care for family members during their senior years. She had worked at various other jobs and later was a secretary to George and Shirley Marshall for a few years.

Brenda made her profession of faith and was baptized at an early age and was a member of New Hope Baptist Church in Crocker, Missouri.

In her spare time she enjoyed being outdoors where her favorite activities were fishing, doing yard work, growing beautiful flowers, and playing with her dogs. She also enjoyed going to the shooting range and riding motorcycles. She was steadfast in her convictions but was always a joy to be around. She was a talented photographer
