Lee Loren Heisz (Lebanon)

AUG 30, 1969 - DEC 30, 2016

Lee Loren Heisz, son of Loren Louie and Marylou Sheridan Heisz, was born August 30, 1969, in Richland Center, Wisconsin. He departed this life Friday, December 30, 2016, from injuries sustained in a car accident, near Chanute, Kansas, at the age of forty-seven years, and four months.

On October 1, 1993, he was united in marriage to Carol Lynn Daehn, and to this union two sons were born.

His father preceded him in death.

Lee is survived by his wife, Carol, of the home; two sons, Jordan and Cameron Heisz, of the home; his mother, Marylou Heisz, of Lebanon, Missouri; two brothers, Lance Heisz, and his wife, Kim, of Lebanon, Missouri, and Lowell Heisz, and his wife, Tori, of Osage Beach, Missouri; a sister, Lisa Dedrick, and her husband, Jaret, of Portage, Wisconsin; a number of nieces and nephews; two sisters-in-law, Laura Wentz, and Susan Miller, and her husband, Seth, all of Portage, Wisconsin; an aunt, Joan Roberts, and her husband, Woodrow, of Boscobel, Wisconsin; an uncle, Mark Heisz, and his wife, Theresa, of Lebanon, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and friends. He was born in Wisconsin, and lived in various locations with his family, including Michigan, Illinois, Oklahoma, while his father was serving in the ministry. After he graduated from high school, he attended Calvary Bible College in Kansas City, Missouri. Most of his life he spent in Wisconsin and in Portage for over twenty-two years. Lee had worked as a carpenter doing building construction, but was currently employed by Tractor Supply Company in Portage.

Lee had established a deep, personal, quiet faith in God.

In his spare time he liked hunting and fishing and also enjoyed working on CJ Jeeps. He had an outgoing personality and never met a stranger. He was well liked by all of his friends and enjoyed hosting cookouts and social functions. His family was most important to him and being a devoted husband and father was his highest priority.

I went to school with Carol. Both her and Lee were such wonderful people. Our youngest children are the same age so seeing them at school things was always good. Lee always came over and said hello to us and smile or a story. I have to say it breaks my heart that Lee is gone to soon and that Carol is suffering her own battles. Their boys are two wonderful young men, just shows what kind of parents they are. Jordan has always been the one that says hello every time I come to see him and smiles and ask me how I am . My prayers are with all of you . God bless Carol, Jordan and Cameron and the whole family . Lee is watching over all of you, the kind of man he was im sure he has the biggest angel wings ever!! May you find comfort in this terrible loss together with all the precious memories of Lee.
