Ida Faye Day (Hartville)

APR 6, 2017

Ida Faye Day, daughter of Elmer Hansen “Sooner” and Opal (Austin) Coxen, was born Aug 22, 1928, on the family farm, in the Coon Creek Community, near Hartville, Missouri. She departed this life to enter her Heavenly Home, Thursday, April 6, 2017, in the Hartville Care Center, in Hartville, Missouri, at the age of eighty-eight years, seven months and fourteen days.

On September 8, 1945, she was united in marriage to Jesse James Day, and to this union a daughter and a son was born.

Faye had professed her faith in Jesus Christ and was a longtime member of the Coon Creek Freewill Baptist Church. She loved her Lord and working in the church over the years.

She was born and reared near Coon Creek and attended the Coon Creek School. After she and Jesse were married they moved to Idaho for a few years to work, but returned to Wright County and bought the farm near their family, where they lovingly raised their children.

During working years, besides being a homemaker to her family, Faye had worked at the Tobin-Hamilton Shoe Company in Mansfield, the H.D. Lee Factory in Hartville and Lebanon, United Valcan Heel Company in Hartville, and was a cook at the Hartville School, where she retired from in 1992. She always said “cooking at the school was her favorite job”.

Faye loved her family dearly. She found great joy in being with them at holidays, gatherings, or just cooking for them and having them over for a meal. “Granny” as she was affectionately known, was a wonderful cook, it was one of her favorite things to do. In her spare time she also enjoyed growing and working in her flowers, gardening, and when she could attending church.

She was a member of the Hartville Garden Club, Hartville Senior Citizens and served as the Brush Creek Republican Central Committee Woman, and the Brush Creek
