I was blessed to have Irene as my teacher. We once had a banquet in Latin class. It was the, "Ides of March." It was lots of work for Mrs. Moody. We all were dressed in our sheets including her! Prayers for the family. Mary Shropshire

So Sorry to hear about Irene passing. She will be remembered by many. Her teaching, her friendship, her caring, her grace. A very strong Lady. One who always made you feel as if you were important. One who thought right was right and wrong was wrong. Although many will be sad. Heaven must be having a great party. I am sorry for your loss. Karen (Moody) Wilson

I have known Irene for the past 17 years. She and my Mom were good friends. During the years that my Mom was failing, she was a wonderful faithful friend always calling and visiting Mom up until the end. Irene was like a Mom to me during these times, encouraging me as we struggled to keep Mom at home. She was a beautiful lifeline for me. She was truly a wonderful friend to me. We spent many days quilting together with the Little Pieceful Quilters and I know that I'm not the only one who will miss her so very much.

Aunt Irene was always kind and engaging to spend time with. Mom, Dad and I enjoyed our visit with her last year. Even as a kid, I clearly recall how accommodating she was whenever my sister or I came to visit. She would unselfishly stop whatever she was doing to accommodate anyone who dropped by. Everyone that had the privilege of knowing here appreciates how warmly she treated those around her. She was sincerely unique and special to us. We will miss her deeply. Norval I. Wallen III

She was my Aunt Irene and I always loved coming to her house. There was always something fun to do, usually outside. She was always happy to see us and her house was our house. She always had cookies and something refreshing to drink. As I got older I noticed what an elegant woman she was and only spoke kindly of others. There will be a hole in our family without her as we loved her dearly. Prayers for the family, Nancy Oliver-Vallely
