Athel Delphine McIntosh (Camdenton)

FEB 26, 1930 - JUL 16, 2017

Athel Delphine McIntosh was born February 26, 1930 at Davis City, Iowa, to Mervil Mark and Veta Alice Trembly Hagan. She attended grade school in Missouri, Oregon, and Washington. And was a graduate of Princeton High School in Princeton, Missouri.

Athel married James Reed McIntosh on May 25, 1947 at Pleasanton Methodist Church, Pleasanton, Iowa and to this union seven children were born.

She was saved in 1956 at Zion Baptist Church, Decaturville, Missouri, and was baptized July 30, 1960 at McGraw Ford, of James River near Springfield, Missouri. She united with Dale Street Baptist, and later Springhill Baptist Church in Willard, Missouri. Following her move to Camden County, she joined Pleasant Grove Baptist church and later Union Southern Baptist Church in Decaturville, Missouri. Athel served as a teacher in Sunday school, training union, VBS Director, and many committees throughout the years. She also served as clerk and treasurer, planned several programs and many special events, and was proud to teach four generations at Union.

Athel also did volunteer work for Missouri Ozarks and served on election boards, worked at Parrish and Bates Markets, but her main job was being a wife, mother, and grandmother. She learned to play guitar and loved music, reading, and telling stories to her children and grandchildren. She made many quilts, most were given away, and it was safe to say her needle never got rusty. She had a large correspondence, and kept a diary from her grade school years.

Athel was preceded in death by her husband, James; a son, Doran Brant; a grandson, Shawn McIntosh; a granddaughter, Haley Rose Dyal; two great-granddaughters, Faith Jean Steinhoff and Illa Rae McIntosh; her parents; and many other relatives. She is survived by three sons, Rick McIntosh and wife Judy, Mike McIntosh, and Greg McIntosh; three daughters, Kerri Horner and husband Joe, Colleen Dyal and
