Willie was born and raised near the Hartville area. He was born disabled, but he touched the lives of everyone who was around him. He moved into the Hartville Care Center in 1994 and ran the place ever since. Willie loved to watch cartoons every day, most notably Scooby-Doo, Batman, and the movie Cars. Willie loved his family very much and was always excited to see them whenever they came to visit. Willie was a caring person that lighted up everyone's day whenever they spoke and visited with him. He created many memories and we will always cherish his life with us.
