Patty, I am so sorry to hear about Jerry. Lots of memories of him. Both of us bidding on that Foxtrotter mare, I got her and found out she was crazy, Jerry sure got a kick out of that. You are both special people to me. Love and prayers. Tammy

I remember Jerry teasing me at Grandma & Grandpa Hightower's when I was about 4; he would have been 20....So glad we had such a great visit on 9/18! He did most of the talking & we all had some laughs. So glad he is pain-free and with Jesus!

Jerry was always cheerful and we shared many good times growing up. He always was ready for a good card game when they came own home from KC.One year when I was little he dressed up as Santa and brought me a bicycle. He loved the farm life and was always ready to tell a good story about something that had happened. He will be missed by all that knew and loved him !!!
