Barbara Blair (Buffalo)

SEP 23, 1940 - NOV 15, 2017

Barbara Francis Blair, daughter of the late Manley and Bernadine (Murphy) Titus, was born on September 23, 1940 in Michigan and departed this life November 15, 2017 in Buffalo, Missouri. At the time of her passing she was 77 years, 1 month and 22 days of age.

Barbara was born in Michigan and graduated from Dearborn Heights High School. She met Billie while he was stationed in Detroit, Michigan and they were united in marriage on June 10, 1962. To this union four sons were born, all whom survive her. Together they traveled the world during Billy's time of service but they later settled down in Buffalo in 1976. She was a faithful member of Calvary Chapel Church where she served many years as Treasurer and up to the time of her passing served as a clerk. Calvary Chapel Church was her home away from home and during her time there she touched many lives and brought many friends and family to Christ. She was also a member the Garden Club, commodities at Calvary Chapel and VFW ladies auxiliary.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Billie Rex Blair; and three siblings. She is survived by her four sons, Patrick & wife Rhonda Blair, Robert & wife Regina Blair, David Blair, and Christopher & wife Stacey Blair; four siblings; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She also leaves many friends, family, nieces and nephews who will all truly miss her.
