Raymond E. Barnes, Jr. (Seymour)

JUL 3, 1977 - OCT 29, 2011

On Saturday, October 29, 2011, a dearly loved son, father, brother and friend, Raymond Eugene Barnes, Jr. departed this world at the age of thirty-four years, three months, and twenty-six days. Although we will miss him we have hope that someday we will be with him again.

Raymond Eugene Barnes, Jr. was born on July 3, 1977 at Providence Saint Margaret Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas to Raymond E. Barnes, Sr. and Martha Tidona.

He is preceded in death by his paternal great-grandmother Mary Masters.

Raymond is survived by his children Malachi, Natalie, Tiffanie and Brett Barnes, his mother Marty Day and her husband Lee, all of the home; his father Raymond Eugene Barnes, Sr. of Seymour, Missouri; his sisters, Stephanie Rhodes of Rogersville, Missouri, Kathy Barnes, and Crystal Barnes both of Kansas City, Missouri; his brothers, Johnny Barnes of Seymour, Missouri, and Michael Barnes of Kansas City, Missouri; his maternal grandparent Amanda Patton of Kansas City, Missouri; his paternal grandparents Carl and Helen Johnson of Seymour, Missouri; along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews; and the mother of his children Linda Barnes whom was the love of his life.

Growing up in the Seymour area, Ray was a true country boy with fishing on his mind. He walked these old rugged hills at peace with the world, quick with a smile and took the time for those he cared for. He was a specialist in laying tile and worked hard to provide for his family. Loving, compassionate, a soft-hearted man, Ray was a wonderful son. His family was his world, and he left a legacy of love behind for them to carry on. He enjoyed fishing, cooking, spending time with family and friends, but he was at his happiest with his children.

He knew there was someone up above to put his faith in so Raymond began attending New Hope Assembly with his children.

Raymond Barnes, Jr. was a loving and devoted father, son, brother, uncle, nephew

I remember when me and Uncle Ray would sneak the Oreo cookies when mom and Linny would go to the store on Nat Nat's B-day.... needless to say they had to make an extra trip. Miss you Uncle Ray.-
