He departed this life, Saturday, November 13, 2010 in Cox Medical Center South in Springfield, Missouri at the age of seventy-three years, seven months and twenty-three days.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Victor is survived by his loving wife, Alzina, of the home; a daughter, Lori Sarafinchin and her husband, Corey of Alberta, Canada; three sons, Richard Devietoris and his wife, Debra, of Saskatchewan, Canada, Brian and Paul James, of Toronto, Canada; a granddaughter, Niki Sarafinchin; three step-children, Vivienne Ford and her husband, Mark, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Linda Stevens, and Raymond Wilson and his wife, Cora, all of Seymour, Missouri; ten step-grandchildren, Jimmy, Joshua, Dustin, Deanna, Ashley, Joey, JoJo, Shaylea, Heather, and Brandi; several great-grandchildren; a sister, Claudine Goller, of Toronto, Canada; and a host of other relatives and many friends.

He grew up in Canada and worked as an over-the-road truck driver for many years. Following his marriage to Alzina on July 13, 2003 he moved to Seymour, Missouri to make his home. He and Alzina attended the Cedar Gap Baptist Church as long as his health permitted.

In his spare time he enjoyed cooking and making special recipes for his family and friends. He spent a lot of time surfing the web on the computer and had recently built a model railroad that he was very proud of. He also loved playing with his cats, "Rusty" and "Bubby".

Victor was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and brother, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate his life and accomplishments and will cherish the memories he created for all those who knew and loved him.

I was sorry to hear of my brother's death. He and I grew up in a close Hungarian-Canadian family in Scarborough, Ontario, Canada, with parents who were proud of their Hungarian background but felt fortunate to live in Canada. Cornelius Victor Vincent did not like his first name, and was happy to change his name to Vic when he was old enough. He was a friendly and happy boy and got along well with everybody. We are Catholics and are having Masses and prayers said for the repose of his soul, and I pray that everyone who cared for him will find peace as well.##imported-begin##Claudine Goller##imported-end##
