Eula Hill

NOV 1, 2009

Eula Mae Hill, daughter of Noah and Martha E. Hurt Bohanon, was born, February 15, 1919, in Marshfield, Missouri. She departed this life Wednesday, November 12, 2009, in Lake Regional Hospital, Osage Beach, Missouri, at the age of ninety years, eight months and twenty-eight days. On December 19, 1942, in Camdenton, Missouri, she was united in marriage to Cecil J. Hill. Together they shared forty-eight years until his passing on September 6, 1991. She was also preceded in death by her parents; four brothers, Orville Bohanon, Allen Bohanon, Morris Davis and David “Duck” Eaton, and three sisters, Mamie Davis, Thelma Eaton and Rosie Eaton. Survivors include her daughter, Betty Hanks of Camdenton, Missouri; her son, Ralph A. Webb and wife Libby of Jefferson City, Missouri; six grandchildren, Danny Hanks and wife Jo Sue of Springfield, Missouri; Larry Hanks of Kansas City, Missouri, Vicky Jackson of Camdenton, Missouri, Chip Webb and wife Steph of St. Louis, Missouri, Steven Webb and wife Deb of Jefferson City, Missouri, and Marc Webb and wife Becky of Jefferson City, Missouri; eighteen great-grandchildren; a sister, Mabel Capps of Camdenton, Missouri and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends. As a young child, Eula’s family moved from Marshfield to Camdenton riding in a covered wagon and sleeping in a tent as a home when they first arrived. She remained in the area for the rest of her life. Early in life, she worked as a housekeeper and later worked for Blair Cedar where she retired from working as a stamper and packer. Eula made a profession of faith in Christ and was a member of the First Assembly of God Church in Camdenton for over fifty-five years. She loved her church and was one of three Church Mother’s. She was also active in the women’s ministry group. In her spare time she enjoyed miniature golf, having played until she was eighty-eight years old. She enjoyed gathering with family and friends and playing the board game “Sorry”. She was fortunate to travel to various locations with her daughter and son-in-law. Most of all,
