in 1995.

Pasty had accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was a member of the Baptist faith, serving Him as she committed herself to caring for her family.

In her spare time Pasty enjoyed reading, quilting, fishing and attending dances with her friends. Pasty's genuine smile made you feel at ease. She loved spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. "Just Mom", two simple words to sum up a life time of love, understanding, friendship and care, building a legacy of love that will last.

Pasty was a loving Mom, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, and great-aunt and was a kind and loving friend and neighbor. We celebrate her life and accomplishments and will forever cherish the memories she made for all who knew and loved her.
