Robert P. Lowery (Mansfield)

SEP 16, 1933 - JUL 7, 2011

Robert Philip Lowery, son of Herman Jay and Margaret Eleanor Lusk Lowery, was born September 16, 1933, in New Castle, Pennsylvania, and departed this life on July 7, 2011, in Rocky Ridge Manor near Mansfield at the age of seventy-seven years, nine months and twenty-one days.

At the age of twelve Bob moved with his parents and sister to Los Angeles, California, where he graduated from high school and UCLA with a teaching degree in science. He was married and had a daughter, Diana, who died many years ago at age 14. Soon after her death his marriage ended.

During the Korean War, Bob entered the United States Army and was stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he worked as a lab technician for almost two years. After being honorably discharged, he taught science classes in middle and high school for thirty years.

On February 14, 1981, Bob was united in marriage to Claudia Kellogg. He and Claudia moved to a farm near Mansfield and his parents relocated in the City of Mansfield at the same time. After the death of his parents, he and Claudia moved into their home in Mansfield where they lived until their health forced them to live the rest of their lives in Rocky Ridge Manor.

After moving to this area, Bob became an active member of the Clarence King Post #128 of the American Legion where he served many years as Sgt at Arms, being very involved in graveside military honors for those Veterans who had passed on. He was also a member of the Mansfield Lodge #543 and attended when his health permitted. For many years Bob volunteered as the parade organizer for the Wilder Day Parade.

Bob enjoyed animals of all kinds. During his science teaching years he often had cages with large spiders, snakes and other critters in his house.

His great love was fishing and while living in California he went deep sea fishing with

Bob Lowery had a profound and lasting impact on my life. He kindled my love for science and inspired a sense of wonder at the universe. He was a mentor to me when I most needed one in my young life. I will never forget his Brylcreemed hair, 'Colonel Sanders' goatee, booming voice, disarming and unexpectedly absurd sense of humor, and his unwavering refusal to ever be upstaged by disrespectful punk kids. Bob, you were a distinguished gentleman, an extraordinary teacher, and an inspiration to the children whose lives you touched. You were one of a kind, and you are missed. I will NEVER forget you, I promise. Rest in peace, old friend. From a former student, Robert Frost Junior High Granada Hills, CA 1981##imported-begin##Andrew Hutson##imported-end##

Knew Bob and Claudia when they used to come into the Crisis Center to see what we had on our shelves. They were always friendly and had smiles on their faces. Sorry to hear of Bob's passing##imported-begin##Donna Climer##imported-end##
