Robert McDaniel

NOV 1, 2009

Robert Kenneth McDaniel, son of Edward August and Elsie May Dunn McDaniel, was born June 3, 1927, in Kansas City, Missouri. He departed this life Tuesday, November 3, 2009, in St. Mary's Hospital, Blue Springs, Missouri, at the age of eighty-two years and five months. On February 3, 1951, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kansas City, Missouri, he was united in marriage to Imogene Horton and to this union, two children were born. Together they lovingly shared the past fifty-eight years. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Keith McDaniel. Survivors include his wife, Jean McDaniel of the home; a daughter, Marilyn Meyers and husband Kyle of Blue Springs, Missouri, and their children, Hannah Marie McDaniel, LeaAnna Meyers, Janessa Meyers and Joshua Dalton Meyers; a son, Joe McDaniel and Amanda McDaniel of Smithville, Missouri, and their children, Jacob Aaron McDaniel and Alaina Jo McDaniel; a great-granddaughter, Evelyn Renee Rothwell and several other relatives and many friends. Robert was raised in Kansas City, Missouri, and was a graduate of Glennon High School in the Class of 1944. After graduation, he enlisted with the United States Army and proudly served his country in World War II. After being honorably discharged from the Army, he returned to Kansas City. He and Jean lovingly raised their children there while Ken worked for the City of Kansas City. He retired after thirty-nine years of service as a maintenance supervisor at the Municipal Auditorium. They retired to the Lake of the Ozarks in 1989. Ken was a member of the Laurie Elks Lodge and had served as Captain for the Northwest Fire Protection District. He was a Harley Davidson enthusiast and in his spare time enjoyed boating and skiing. He was a nostalgic man, who liked old trucks and old western movies. He enjoyed Irish music and has always longed to make a trip to Ireland where his grandpa was born. Most of all, he loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren. Ken was a loving husband, father and grandfather and a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate his life and his
