Helen Robinett

JUL 1, 2008

A glorious re-union has taken place at the gates of heaven as Helen Mae Krause Robinett entered there on July 19, 2008 at 5:55pm. Helen Mae Krause was born April 22, 1924 to Leslie Jerome and Dessie Inez Krause at Hartville, MO. Helen was raised in the Indian Creek area north of Hartville and professed her faith in Christ at a young age. She excelled in school and her favorite subject was spelling and throughout her life she talked of the days of the 'spelling bees' at school and how she enjoyed participating in them. Through her life, she was a voracious reader, enjoying classic literature and studying the royal family. On October 1, 1946 she was united in marriage to Joe H. Robinett in Mtn. Home, AR. To this union three daughters and one son were born. Helen and Joe started their life together on the Robinett family farm east of Hartville, moved to St. Louis for a short time, then moved to Cowden, IL where Joe taught school and coached the basketball team. In 1957 they again moved and settled in Dragerton, UT where Joe taught in the local school system, and Helen lovingly raised their family and took care of their home. Seventeen years later, they returned home to Hartville in the fall of 1973. Helen loved to do handwork, crocheting, embroidery work, ceramics and other hobbies. She also loved her flowers and nature, loved to visit and cook for her friends and family and enjoyed traveling. Helen was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Joe of 30 years; one infant sister, Janelle; three brothers, Elmo, Jake and Lester Krause. She is survived by her children: Bobbie Boysun of Billings, MT; Paul and wife Barbara, of East Carbon City, UT; Helen Sanders and husband Tommy of Hartville; Cynthia and her husband Allan of San Mateo, CA. Eight grand children: Leslie Ann Robinett and husband Todd Jones, Steve Robinett and wife Misti; Joe L. Robinett and Melissa; Travis Robinett and Lacey; Kristi Lee Boysun; Matt Sanders and wife, Angie; Amanda Noelle Sanders; Glenn Sanders and Carrie. Seven great-grandchildren: Aubree Robinett, Gavin Robinett, Kaitlynn Robinett, Jerrick Boysun, Landon James Robinett,
