Seymour square, during the Apple Festival. In his spare time he enjoyed woodworking, gardening, farming, and fishing. He also loved square dancing, and had a passion for playing card games, such as, Rook and Canasta. He was known for being a big teaser to his family and friends and for his practical jokes. Wilbur was a loving husband, father, and uncle, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate his life and his accomplishments and will cherish the memories he created for his family and friends. Services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, February 27, 2006, in the Homan-Howe Chapel, Seymour. Burial will be in the Seymour Masonic Cemetery under the direction of Holman-Howe Funeral Home of Seymour, Missouri.
