Lloyd Stowe

JAN 1, 2006

Lloyd Harlen Stowe, son of Will and Ethel Ware Stowe, was born May 10, 1924, near Brush Creek, Missouri. He departed this life Tuesday, January 24, 2006, in St. John's Hospital, in Lebanon, Missouri, at the age of eighty-one years, eight months, and fourteen days. In November of 1941, he was united in marriage to Alma Gage, and to this union four sons, Donald, Ferrell, Gerald, and Jack, were born. On July 19, 1971, he was united in marriage to Geneva Mae Capps, and together they shared the last thirty-four years. He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Donald Stowe; three brothers, Everett, Clifton, and Glen Stowe; and a sister, Opal Vance. Lloyd is survived by his wife, Geneva, of the home; three sons and daughters-in-law, Ferrell and Elaine Stowe, of Nashville, Tennessee, Gerald and Diane Stowe, and Jack and Peggy Stowe, all of Lebanon, Missouri; six grandchildren, Cindy Wehner, Paula Chaffin, and her husband, Duane, Matthew Stowe, and his wife, Christy, Josh Stowe, Carrie Warson, and her husband, Nathan, and Bethany Stowe; three step-grandchildren, Alisa Vernick, Erika and Kristin Stoner; two great-grandchildren, Justin Wehner, and Case Warson; four step-great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and friends. He was born and raised in Laclede County and then served his country faithfully in the United States Navy during World War II. After being honorably discharged from the Navy, he returned to the Lebanon area where he worked at the Caffeyville Store and Gas Station, then for the Friscoe Railroad, and later at Independent Stave Company. For most of his life he was an antique dealer in this area. Lloyd made his profession of faith in Christ at an early age, and was a member of Liberty Freewill Baptist Church since 1937. He enjoyed listening to Bluegrass music, growing beautiful flowers, and squirrel hunting in his spare time. His family was very important to him and he especially enjoyed cooking chili and chicken and dumplings for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Lloyd was a loving husband, father,
