Throughout her life, she was a devoted homemaker to her family. Mickey had made her profession of belief in Christ and followed the Freewill Baptist faith. In her spare time she enjoyed collecting angels and crocheting. She was a very caring person who was always willing to help and do things for others. Her family was very important to her and she liked having them around her. Mickey was a loving mother, grandmother, and daughter, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and all that she accomplished and will cherish the wonderful memories she created for her family and friends.
