Jaren Denise Farmer (Lebanon)

JAN 15, 1983 - DEC 3, 2019

Jaren Denise Farmer, daughter of Paul and Denise Powers Farmer, was born January 15, 1983, in Redlands, California. She departed this life Tuesday, December 3, 2019, in Mercy Hospital, in Lebanon, Missouri, at the age of thirty-six years, ten months, and nineteen days.

Her mother preceded her in death.

Jaren is survived by her significant other, Christopher Bunch, of Lebanon, Missouri; two daughters, Emily Bunch, of Rolla, Missouri, and Samantha Bunch, of the State of Nebraska; a granddaughter, Piper; her father, Paul Farmer, of the State of Nevada; two brothers, Jimmy Farmer, of Springfield, Missouri, and Justin Farmer, of Bakersfield, California; two sisters, Lauren Farmer, of the State of Arizona, and Jamie Bunton, of Poplar Bluff, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was born and raised in California. After graduating from high school, she moved to Missouri in 1995, first making her home in the Roby and Evening Shade area. She worked as a medical aide at Ginger Bread House and in home health care. Once she moved to Lebanon, she was a devoted homemaker.

In her spare time she enjoyed watching football and listening to music. She was always bubbly and had an uplifting personality. She enjoyed making other people laugh. She loved her family and especially enjoyed spending time with her granddaughter.

Jaren was a loving significant other, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, and was a good friend. We celebrate her life and know that her family will cherish the wonderful memories she created for them during her lifetime.

A memorial has been established and contributions may be made through the funeral home.

All services are private and under the direction of Holman-Howe Funeral Home of Lebanon.
