Amanda Rae Lonczkowski, daughter of Raymond and Matilda Nortz Hankins, was born May 8, 1981, in Klamath Falls, Oregon. She departed this life Tuesday, June 9, 2020, in her home, near Tunas, Missouri, at the age of thirty-nine years, one month, and one day.

On December 5, 2014 she was united in marriage to Eric Lonczkowski.

Amanda is survived by her husband, Eric Lonczkowski; two daughters, Destanie Magers and her fiancé, Francis Moyers, of Conway, Missouri, and Cloe Husted, of Tunas, Missouri; five sons, Caramon Horton, Andrew Horton, Dalton Lonczkowski, Aiden Urbas, and Bentley Lonczkowski, all of Tunas, Missouri; her mother, Matilda Bennett, of Tunas, Missouri; her father, Raymond Hankins, of Klamath Falls, Oregon; her mother-in-law and father-in-law, Robin and Alan Lonczkowski, of Conway, Missouri; two grandchildren, Elisabeth Moyers and James Moyers, both of Conway, Missouri; a brother, Bradley Hankins, of Tunas, Missouri; two sisters, Amy Moats and her husband, Charles Moats, Jr. of Conway, Missouri, and Lisa Kavanaugh, of Lebanon, Missouri; several nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was born and raised in Oregon and then moved to Missouri with her mother when she was fifteen years old. She then attended Lebanon R-III Schools.

For most of her adult years, she had been a devoted homemaker and loving mother. She enjoyed being outdoors where she liked camping and barbecuing. She loved her family dearly and especially enjoyed having time with her children.

Amanda was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and was a caring friend. We celebrate her life and know that her family and friends will hold tight to the wonderful memories she created for them during her lifetime.
