Lloyd C. Berry (Lebanon)

JUN 15, 1933 - SEP 6, 2012

Lloyd Clyde Berry, son of Grant and Ona Jane Long Berry, was born June 15, 1933, near Long Lane, Missouri. He departed this life Thursday, September 6, 2012, in his home, near Lebanon, Missouri, at the age of seventy-nine years, two months, and twenty-one days.

On May 25, 1956, he was united in marriage to Ruth Anne Dennis, and to this union two sons were born.

His parents preceded him in death.

Lloyd is survived by his loving wife of fifty-six years, Ruth, of the home; two sons, David Berry, and Jon Berry, and his wife, Lynn, all of Lebanon, Missouri; six grandchildren, Eric and Nicole, Matthew, Shawn, Kimber, Jennifer, and Crystal; two great-grandchildren, Natalee, and Carl; a brother, Wayne Berry, and his wife, Diane, of Moline, Illinois; two sisters, Wilma Smith, of New Franklin, Missouri, and Lorene Wolman, of Mexico, Missouri; several nieces and nephews; two daughters-in-law, Sonya Berry, of Lebanon, Missouri, and Melissa Berry, of Buffalo, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

He was born and raised in the Lebanon, Missouri area. As a young man, he joined the United States Army, and served as a combat engineer in the 293rd Engineering Battalion, during the Korean War. After being honorably discharged as a Corporal in the Army on May 11, 1955, he returned to Lebanon. Once Lloyd and Ruth were married, they made their home near Lebanon, and lovingly raised their sons.

Throughout the years, he worked as a carpenter doing building construction.

Lloyd had professed his faith in Christ and was an active member of Flatwoods Bible Church. His special ministry was through his carpentry, repairing and taking care of the church building.

In his spare time he enjoyed drag racing in the 1960's, riding dirt bikes, and racing dune buggies. He had built a cabin in the woods, and loved his catfish pond. He was a compassionate person who would often stop what he was doing to help someone in need. His family was very important to him and he enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Lloyd was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and uncle, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate his life and his accomplishments and know that his family and friends will treasure the wonderful memories he made for them during his lifetime.

Our sincerest sorrow for the loss of a very special man. He has meant so much to us throughout the years of knowing him. He had a talent for being able to fix anything we could tear up and we are grateful to him for that. We will always remember him and our prayers go up for this family. IN HIS LOVE, Rod and Shelly Knapp and kids

Dear Family and Friends of Lloyd Berry: Please accept our family's sincere sorrow on the loss of your loved one. When a loved one is lost in death we sometime wonder will war and suffering ever end. When our loved one served in the military we may ask will war ever end. These questions arise as war continues to claim untold numbers of human lives. All of us have been touched by human suffering. The Bible teaches that God foretells a time when he will establish peace earth wide. Under his Kingdom, a heavenly government, people will not "learn war anymore." Instead, they will "beat their swords into plowshares." (Isaiah 2:4) God will bring an end to all injustice and suffering. The Bible promises: "[God will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things [including today's injustices and sufferings] have passed away."-Revelation 21:3, 4. Additional scriptures that support these promises include Psalm 37:10, 11; 46:9; and Micah 4:1-4. Again please accept our condolences on the loss of your loved one. Sincerely, The Warner Family

To Ruth and family, we express our sympathy for your loss but we rejoice knowing Lloyd is there with our Lord singing and praising HIM. We pray for God's loving hand to comfort you in the hard times of missing Lloyd but in time we pray that only the good memories will replace the sad times now, Jim and Sharon Teter

Oh I am SO sad to hear the news. Lloyd worked with my dad (Jim Clark) for many years and I had the fortunate opportunity to work with Lloyd myself a few years. I have SO many fond memories of Lloyd. He always had a quirky joke or one-liner, like "Fine as a frog hair." All these years later, and I still can't see a Moon Pie without thinking of Lloyd. Between working together in construction and the years of dune buggy racing and mechanics work and all the times we'd "just stop by Lloyd's for a minute" on the way home.... I've got a gazillion fond memories of Lloyd. He always had a kind demeanor towards me as a kid (now that I have kids of my own I appreciate that even more). As an 18-year-old girl in construction (many many years ago), he was fun to work with, taught me carpentry tips, and never had a chauvanistic attitude toward me. My heart is sad for the loss. May the many, many fond memories give you comfort.....Gari Ann (Clark) Schmidt

We know that Ruth and family are feeling a great loss right now. Lloyd was so ready to go to be with the Lord, I am sure He is singing and praising God right now in HIS presence. We pray for God's hand of comfort for Ruth, she is going to be lonely but may their sweet memories in time bring her comfort. Bless you Ruth, we love you, Jim and Sharon Teter
