Obituary

Dean W. Brim (Bolivar)

DEC 28, 1932 - JUL 8, 2020

Following teaching, he was involved in various aspects of farming, raising hogs, beef cattle and milking Holstein dairy cows for over 30 years. He owned and operated his own Real Estate business as a broker, developed several subdivisions and supervised the building of at least 200 homes.

He was a hard worker and loved a good challenge. He told us kids and the grandkids many stories of his childhood, and things he had done in his adult life. He'd say "I've had a lot of fun in my life." He offered much wisdom and advice and was always there to help in any way he could.

He had been a member of the Mt. Olive Cemetery Association for 50 years, serving as Vice-President.

He had been a member of the First Baptist Church, Bolivar.

At Dean's request and according to Genesis 3:19 "For you are dust and to dust you shall return", the body has been cremated.

Memorial services will be held at Mt. Olive Cemetery, Bolivar, MO on Monday, July 27, 2020 at 10:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Mt. Olive Cemetery in care of Butler Funeral Home or may be sent to the Mt. Olive Treasurer at 1740 E. 552nd Rd, Brighton, MO 65617.

Kay Davis posted:

I knew Dean and Roy and Ermal as I grew up north of their place on Highway D. We also went to Mt Olive Church. He was probably about 17 and I was four when I had a crush on him. Ha. At Decoration Day at the cemetery, I insisted sitting with him in the car. I am sure he was horrified but he was so nice to me. My condolences to his family. May God grant you comfort.
