He was preceded in death by his father; his maternal grandparents, James and Bessie Perry; and his mother-in-law, Toni Jones.

Scotty is survived by his mother, Debra Perry, of Lebanon, Missouri; two daughters, Jordan Hobbs, of Dixon, Missouri, and Azzy Wheeler, of Richland, Missouri; four sons, Joshua Jones, Dakota Jones, Noah Jones, all of Lebanon, Missouri, and Denver Wheeler, of Richland, Missouri; five sisters, Nikki Clark, of Kansas City, Missouri, China Boals, of Rolla, Missouri, Bessie Goss, of Kansas City, Missouri, Angel Perry, and Cali Perry, both of Lebanon, Missouri; his former wife, Cindy Jones, of Lebanon, Missouri; several aunts and uncles; a number of nieces and nephews; a special friend, David Hisel, of Lebanon, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

He lived his entire life in the Lebanon area and attended Lebanon R-III Schools. He had worked at various jobs throughout the years, but doing construction work was his favorite. He had also been employed by Walmart, King's Cash Savers, White Branch Marine, and Marathon Electric Corporation.

In his spare time he enjoyed being outdoors where he liked camping and fishing. He also enjoyed singing. His family was very important to him and he liked having time with his children.

Scotty was a loving son, father, brother, uncle, and was a caring friend. We celebrate his life and know that he will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by all those who knew and loved him.

All Services will be private and under the care and direction of the Holman-Howe Funeral Home of Lebanon, Missouri.

I Can't believe your gone! Scott may not have been blood but he was more than a brother-n-law. He has been my Brother since I was like 10 years old. I have very few memories threw out my life without him in them. Scott I will miss our singing duets, and you wanting to talk to much while deer hunting. I could list a million other thing I will miss about our memories together, But most of all I will just Miss You! Nothing will ever feel the same without you. We will never let your Boys forget you! Until I see you again Brother Sing your songs to Jesus.....
