Marcia Agan (Lebanon)

DEC 18, 2020

Marcia Marie (Cook) Agan

Marcia Marie Agan was born January 5, 1952, to Ruth Myers Cook and Nelson H. Cook, in Lebanon, Missouri. She departed this life, surrounded by her family, on Friday, December 18, 2020, at Cox Medical Center South in Springfield, at the age of 68.

On July 17, 1970, Marcia married Roger D. Agan, with whom she would spend fifty years. Together they lovingly raised two sons, Jeffrey and Timothy. Marcia made a profession of faith in Christ at an early age, and although she was just a small child attending with her family when it was founded, she nonetheless proudly considered herself a charter member of Hillcrest Baptist Church. She loved the church and was a faithful member throughout her life. Marcia enjoyed crafting and was a talented seamstress; she created countless thoughtful, personal gifts for friends and family members over the years. During her fifty-year career in retail at stores in Lebanon and Rolla, she made many friends and was known for her cheerful attitude, unwavering dependability and exceptional work ethic.

Marcia loyally and selflessly cared for her mother, Ruth Cook, until Ruth's passing at age 102 in August, 2020, less than four months before her own. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Dr. Darrell "Dee" Cook.

Marcia is survived by her husband, Roger, as well as her sons, Jeffrey Agan (Andrea) of Dardenne Prairie, Missouri, and Timothy Agan of Kansas City; a brother, Harold Cook (Carol) of Madison, Alabama; a sister-in-law, Carla Ballowe, of Centerview; two grandchildren, Amelia and Carter Agan; several nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Graveside service will be held at Lebanon City Cemetery on Tuesday,

Roger, I am so sorry to hear about Marcia. She was always so cheerful and gave such wonderful hugs. I'm currently in North Carolina so won't be able to attend the service but my prayers are with you. It's never easy.
