My baby brother was just a smile on my face. He never made me mad even if he did I wouldn't want to mad at him cause he is just the cutest kid ever. One day in school, it was his first day and I was on my way to recess and he was on his way to class and he seen me and I seen him and we both started crying because how much we missed each other from being apart from each other for so long. I had an amazing relationship with Aiden and I wish to have that with him again. I love you sm baby brother. See you soon my love!!! Kisses and hugs and remember we never said bye, we always say see you later.

Aiden, your such an amazing kind hearted sweet little guy, I remember when I used to come over and him and his younger brother would wake me up early while doing E Learning and have me make them cereal and sneak them all types of junk food, I'll miss you coming over my house with the tv turned all the way up watching your YouTube shows! This definitely hurt me to know that a child so young is gone so soon! I'm praying for your family and most importantly keyvonne and Amier my heart hurts, until we meet again baby boy 😭❤️❤�

I did not know Aiden, but like Theresa, I am touched as I study the countenance of this precious child. I wonder why he had such a short mission here on earth. That is something only God in heaven knows. He alone knows the number of our days. I am certain there are many aching hearts that will miss Aiden. May God give you His Peace and Comfort that goes beyond our understanding. Praying for Aiden's family. Donna Gilley

I was Aiden's student teacher this school and this boy had more personality than any other kid I have met!! He was always the first one to give me a hug in the morning, or tell me he loved me. He truly was a special guy and my heart breaks every time I think that I will never have him give me a giant bear hug in the morning. I am praying for the family during this time and hoping that god guides little Aiden home!!! Much love
