She was preceded in death by her parents; her grandparents, Edwin and Myrtle Adams; a grandson, Ryan; a great-grandson, Gavin; two brothers, Marvin J. Adams, Jr. and Glen Adams; and a sister, Beverly Houston.

Lorna is survived by three daughters, Laurie Parten, and her husband, Phil, of Henderson, Tennessee, Suzie Dennis, and her husband, Ron, of Lebanon, Missouri, and Jaclyn Chaney, of Springfield, Missouri; a son, Curtis Owen, and his wife, Lori, of St. Thomas, Missouri; fourteen grandchildren, Melissa, Christopher, Jonathan, Jesse, Shelley, Steven, Aaron, Adam, Connie, Christa, Stephanie, Melony, Megan, and Jessica; a number of great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; several nieces and nephews; a very special friend, other daughter, Emily Piland; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was born and raised in Iowa and received her education there. She then lived in Kansas for a few years before moving to Missouri where she made her home for most of her life. She did live in Colorado for nine years before retiring back to Missouri. Through the years, Lorna worked as a graphic designer for various companies and also was a devoted homemaker to her family.

Lorna accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior early in her life and considered Community Baptist Church in Lebanon as her church home. She greatly enjoyed singing for churches and revivals throughout her life.

She liked crocheting and painting in her spare time and her primary love was caring for her family and her home. Her faith and her family were always the center of her life and she especially enjoyed all of her grandchildren.

You have always been there for me. I will never forget how you raised me to be so strong and independent. I cannot pinpoint one vivid memory. I have so many memories with you in it. Just know that I will always miss you.

I remember a day that you had an Avon meeting in Crocker. You always put your whole self into every interest you were involved in. It made you always successful. We made that day a day together and I rode along to keep you company. After the meeting, we stopped at a little cafe in Crocker for lunch. Cheese burgers and fries. That was the day I learned you are supposed to eat your French fries with a fork (at least in public). Craziest thing I ever heard. :-)

I have so many good memories with Aunt Lorna. I will miss hearing her voice. My Mom (Lorna's sister) always talked about how beautiful Lorna's voice was. I have comfort knowing she is with her siblings finally reuniting with them again.

Aunt Lorna and I shared a common interest in our Adams family history and enjoyed talking about our Iowa ancestors anytime new information would surface. I offer my deepest sympathies to Lorna's family in this difficult time. Mark Johnson

I'm going to miss Lorna so incredibly much!!! I love her more than she ever knew. I'm going to miss her feistiness and her wit. One of my favorite memories of her was when she and Jaci came to my house for Thanksgiving. She was going to bed and stopped at my son's doorway as he was about to close his door. She put her hand on the frame and scream "Ow!" really loud. My son turned around horrified that he had closed his door on her hand. Lorna busted out laughing at the terrified look on his face, because her hand was nowhere near being closed in the door. She had a sense of humor that always kept us on our toes. I'm going to miss that. But, I'm mostly going to miss the amazing hugs and love she had for me. ❤️
