I remember when you used to tell us stories of what heaven would be like. I miss that when we would visit you'd make us sun tea. It was always the best. I miss you grandma. I still have the doll dress you made me for my 13th birthday. You gave me a binder and let me pick out what I wanted and hand crocheted that dress and gave it to me as a birthday gift.

She was a gentle soul and loved my dad very much. My dad loved her too and would have been so lost without her. Now they are together again for ever. Love you and you are apart of my family always.
