Johnnie Dale Caffey, better known as "J.D." and "Brother Jay", was born November 10, 1943 in Phillipsburg, Missouri to John and Mae Ware Caffey. He departed this life Monday, October 18, 2021, with his wife by his side, in his home, in Conway, Missouri, at the age of seventy-seven years, eleven months, and eight days.

On September 27, 1963, he was united in marriage to Laretta Pauline Holiday, and to this union one son, Randy Dale Caffey, was born.

His parents preceded him in death.

Johnnie is survived by his loving wife, Laretta of the home; a son Randy Dale Caffey, and his wife Lori Ann of Lebanon, Missouri; two grandchildren, Nathaniel Ryan, of Independence, Missouri and Brandi Nicole, of Conway, Missouri; his sister, Loretta Day, and her husband, Ivan; a sister-in-law, Carrie Mathews; a number of nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and many friends.

He was raised in the Phillipsburg and Conway area and graduated from Conway High School in the Class of 1961. After he and Laretta were married, they made their home in Conway and lovingly raised their son. Johnnie was a professional carpenter in and around Lebanon for all of his life.

Johnnie was saved early in his life and was ordained into the Freewill Baptist ministry in 1970. He served several churches in the surrounding counties through the years including Calvary, Crossroads, Lone Rock, and Urbana Freewill Baptist Churches. He also served as fill-in pastor for several other churches in the surrounding counties.

His mission was to help people find the Lord, "to be born again", and serve his family.
