Texas; a number of nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and many friends. She grew up in Seymour and after her marriage to Bob she helped him on the farm.

She was a devoted homemaker to her family and also had worked at the Skyline Café, Ozark Manufacturing, St. John's Hospital, and Lynch's Steak House.

Mary Jo had made her profession of faith in God and followed the Baptist faith throughout her life. She was a long time member of the Burnett Sewing Club of Seymour and enjoyed the fellowship with her friends.

In her spare time she enjoyed square dancing, sewing, and reading. She loved visiting with her family and friends and she especially enjoyed the time spent with her grandchildren.

Mary Jo was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, and a good friend and neighbor. We celebrate her life and accomplishments and will cherish all the memories she made for her family and friends.
