Harold Clayton Wallace, son of William Clayton and Reetta Irene Wallace was born on September 17, 1939 in Adair County, Oklahoma. On May 3, 2012 in Glenwood Healthcare he was called home to be with his Lord at the age of seventy-two years, eight months and thirty-two days.

He was raised on a cattle ranch in Oklahoma and enjoyed being outside in God's creation. He graduated from high school in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. In the summer of 1959, Harold entered the United States National Guard and faithfully served his country for six years. After his service he returned to home where he met the love of his life, Thelma Jean Rippee. The couple was joined in marriage on July 16, 1966.

Harold was blessed to be the loving Dad of six wonderful children.

In 1970 the family moved to Seymour to put down their roots. Harold opened "Wallace Machine Shop" in 1977, which he actively operated for thirty years, and is still in business to this day. He was also a certified welder for Paul Mueller Company for fourteen years before retiring in 1986. Harold cared about his community and served two terms as the Northward Alderman in Seymour, as well as an Auxiliary Officer for the Webster County Sheriff's Office. He was a proud Member of the Hazelwood Masonic Lodge 459 AF & AM. He was a member, along with Thelma, of the Seymour Chapter #144, Order of the Eastern Star. He was a former member of the Abou Bed Adhem Shriners in Springfield, Missouri and of the Seymour Lions Club.

Harold received Christ as his Savior in 2009 and worshiped at Life Church in Ava, Missouri. He often visited the churches that his family attended and was blessed to see them serve and worship our Heavenly Father. He was very proud of his children and the faithful men and women they have become. He was a Faithful Servant-to his Lord, to his family, to his country; Harold knew that you lived your faith by loving others and giving back. You could usually find Harold spending quality time with his
