She was saved at an early age and loved the Lord dearly. Hilda and George spent their lives serving the Lord through missions. Their ministries included public school assemblies, mission trips to Haiti and Bible camps at various churches throughout Missouri and Arkansas. They were known for their puppet shows throughout their ministry. Hilda continued service to the Lord after George's home going until the Lord called her home.

Hilda was preceded in death by her parents; husband; two step-mothers, Alta & Martha; granddaughter, Elizabeth; great-grandson, Caleb; and a daughter-in-law, Rose.

She is survived by her son, Tom Taylor and his wife Linda of Buffalo, Missouri; great-grandsons, Adam & Ben Ingerson of Mtn. Grove; two granddaughters, Rebecca Ward and husband John of Waynesville, Missouri and Mary VanOrden and her husband Robert and their children, Andrew, Austin, Abigail & Alyssa of Ava, Missouri; her brother, Harold Boulton and his wife Billie of Wapello, Iowa; a sister, Letha McCulley and her husband Dean of Columbus Junction, Iowa as well as a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

For those she left behind, she will greatly missed, but rest assured she is in Heaven with Jesus.

My condolences to all of the family and friends who must say farewell to Miss Hilda. Her life has been a great example of "blooming where you're planted." She never retired from being a missionary -- she simply changed mission fields. Her greatest desire is that all of her family and acquaintances will come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. She is in Heaven today, and hoping to welcome you all there someday.

Was sorry to hear of Hilda's passing. She was a true witness for God in everything she did. Mary, you had a special grandmother. You can find peace in knowing that she is setting at the feet of Jesus and singing praises.

An amazing woman of faith whom I will greatly miss. Hilda was my Sunday school teacher and lead me in the prayer of salvation in VBS as a child. She and George had a huge impact for the Lord on generations of our family.

Dear Family of Hilda; We would like to express our sympathy to your family. Hilda was a faithful part of our Grandview Community Bible Church missionary family for many years. I was with you for George's service and as long as I live I will never forget seeing Hilda personally witnessing to a fellow who needed Christ right there at the Funeral. We are confident that she is rejoicing in the presence of the Lord and that God has used her mightily to reach men and women, boys and girls with the Gospel of Christ. Now she is experiencing her reward - "And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to Him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who diligently seek Him." Hebrews 11:6 Love in Christ, Pastor Darryl Erickson Grandview Community Bible Church
