Robert Ashley posted:

Ed and I would always work on projects together. From remodeling his son Pat's house to remodeling my house. Ed also brought me into the world of Catastrophe Claims Adjusting. Ed gave me the most beautiful opportunity to find success in a very lucrative career. I have shared the skills given to me with countless others and their lives have changed dramatically. Ed was the stone thrown into the water and the ripples extend outwards changing hundreds of lives. My name is Robert Ashley and Dirty Ed was my hero, mentor and grandfather. I love you Ed. I talk about you often and you were everything to me.
