My childhood memories of listening to aunt Jeanne sing, oh what a beautiful voice. She is singing with the angels and I know my mom and dad are so glad to see her.

Jeanne you were one of kind. An amazing person inside and out. When I came to work with Henry's you were the first person that reached out to me. We shared a lot business and personal during lunch time. We were there for each other. I missed you when it was time for you to retire. I was lucky that we still kept in contact mainly through private message on Facebook. You sure did love your family. I will miss you my friend.

In the early 90s Jeanne came to Henry's Towing when my late mother Sandra Henry, was desperate for loyal, honest help when the business and family was expanding. That loyalty literally lasted decades. Her smile was always on at work even during her hardest trials and losses. She and mom spent many an hour giving each other support when they needed it most. She stayed at Henry's when my now late brother Matt took over the company and was a huge help in his transition to leadership. She remained friends with mom and many folks at Henry's after her well deserved retirement. Jeanne was a big part of the early success of Henry's when the original family still owned it. She will be missed and was obviously taken far too soon. My dad and I were surprised to hear she passed away but we both shared happy stories about her within minutes of the news. We pass along our condolences and mourn with her family that she was so dedicated to in her life. Thank you Jeanne you will be missed. Gary and Greg Henry
