I am heart broken to hear of Janies passing. I came to know her as a coworker at Kmart many years ago, and as a friend as she groomed Miss Puddin for my mother in law, and then for me. She will be missed!

Jimmy, I am so sorry for your loss. Janie was like a sister to me for so many years. She took care of Mom's poodles for almost 20 years. I worked for her when she had the shop in town, and missed seeing her every day when she moved out to the house. We had some terrifying times when she was so ill from blood loss, and when her road was snowed shut. She's out of pain now, with Jeanie, Judy, Mom and Dad, Snoopy and all her furbabies. She was so proud of you, and loved you like her own son! You can relax now, the hard part is over for her.

Me and missy (my little shitzu) loved Jannie. She always groomed Missy for me and made beautiful little necklaces for all different occasions. She will be missed.

I'm absolutely gutted to hear of Janies passing. We worked together as groomers and she taught me so much in so little time. I'll genuinely miss her and our conversations. Love you ❤️
