Walter Lundblade (Lebanon)

SEP 14, 1960 - MAY 9, 2023

Walter Lane Lundblade was born September 14, 1960 in Syracuse, Kansas. He passed away Tuesday evening, May 9, 2023 at his home in Stoutland, Missouri. At the time of his death he was sixty-two years, seven months and twenty-five days.

Walter was a mechanic. He worked from sun up to sun down and was a wealth of knowledge about cars and trucks of all makes, models and years. He especially liked the Buick Riviera. He also enjoyed collecting toy cars.

He is survived by his wife, Debra Sue Lundblade of Stoutland, Missouri; a son, Walter A. Lundblade of Indiana; a step-daughter, Staci Scott of St. Louis, Missouri; two stepsons, Sean Smith of Waynesville, Missouri and Kody Smith of Monrovia, Maryland; three sisters, Sarah Lundblade and Mary Smith, both of Springfield, Missouri and Melody Oritz; and a brother, Robert Lundblade.

Walter was recently diagnosed with cancer and he fought a good fight. He was a wonderful family man, devoted husband, father and brother. His family and friends were very important to him and he loved them dearly. He will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

Rest in peace my life long friend. I watched you grow up to be a great person. A really good, God fearing man. When you left this old world your wonderful momma and Dad were there to welcome you. No more pain now, you will have a new body and in the heaven with Jesus. You will be missed by the wonderful friends and family. God bless you and your family. RiP love you my Friend.
