Glenda Kay Walker (Lebanon)

AUG 11, 1947 - JUN 20, 2023

Glenda Kay Walker was born August 11, 1947 in Phoenix, Arizona to Earnest Aldridge and Julia Haddock. She passed away in her home in Lebanon, Missouri on June 20, 2023. At the time of her passing, she was seventy-five years, ten months and nine days.

Glenda was raised in Phoenix, Arizona and attended Phoenix Union High School. On August 3, 1968, she was united in marriage to James Walker and they welcomed four sons to their family.

She worked over twenty years for Pacific Theaters and twenty-five years at American Express where she retired from to move to Lebanon, Missouri with her husband, James. She went to work part-time for ten years at the Lebanon Wal-Mart, (which she jokingly called Wal-Mark). She also claimed she went to work part-time to get a break from James, adding, "if you know, you know." She had a great sense of humor and was a fun person to be around.

Glenda was preceded in death by her husband, James Walker, on July 28, 2020; her parents; two sons, Michael and Joseph; and five brothers, Gerald, Johnny, Bill, Tom and Jimmy.

She is survived by her sons, Jim Walker and his wife, Gail Nichols of Phillipsburg, Missouri and Boomer Walker and his wife, Veronica Dennis of Glendale, Arizona; and five precious grandchildren, Beau, Shea, Logan, Dillon and Leighton.

Glenda's life rotated around her family. She loved her grandchildren very much and looked forward to the time she could spend with them. She was loved by all that came in contact with her and she will be greatly missed.

All services will be private.

I remember back in late march, Aunt Glenda took us kids and my Grandma Becki and parents down to the cemetery down here in Phoenix. I grew up hearing all the stories about her and cherished every moment she came down to visit. I miss her laugh sometimes when she saw us do the goofiest things, like her watching my dad try to eat this spicy siracha sauce near the cemetery. She was such a kind soul and she will be missed dearly, holding her close to our hearts. Rest in peace. We will see you again soon.
