My Granny was the most awesome Grandma ever. She had so much patience with me as a child growing up. She babysat me for years during the summer time and she taught me how to shoot pool at 8yrs old and play the piano. She would watch me swim for hours and then go back to her mobile home and played Skip-Bo and checkers until bed time. And every night while we laid in bed we would say good night to all our family out loud and then scream Good Night John Boy even louder and we would laugh so hard because we knew the neighbors could here us. As i got older we found joy in watching football games and she would stand every time the National Anthem was played. I'm going to miss my dear sweet innocent granny. She never had anything bad to say about anyone. Rest in Peace Granny!!! Take care of my doggy Zues for me until I get there!
