On August 4, 2012, she was united in marriage to Michael D. Hicks, and they shared the last seven years and lived together for thirteen years.

She was preceded in death by her father; and a brother, Stanley Saunders; and her grandmother, Janice Gross.

Ashley is survived by her husband, Michael, of the home; two daughters, Shayna Saunders, and Jayanna Hicks, both of the home; two sons, Abel Hicks, of the home and David Hicks of Lebanon, Missouri; her mother, Kimberly Saunders, of Lebanon, Missouri; an aunt, Tammy Hildebrand, of Osage Beach, Missouri; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She lived most of her life in the Lebanon area, and attended Lebanon R-III Schools. She had worked as a dispatcher for a taxi cab company for several years. She was currently employed by Buckhorn Plastics in Springfield, Missouri. She was also a devoted homemaker to her husband and family.

In her spare time she enjoyed doing craft projects. Her family was very important to her and she especially enjoyed having her family around her. Her children were the center of her life and she loved them dearly.

“ Yes drugs are bad, but there is no relevance here in this situatuon, Ashley and I were clean and proud of it. She was doing everything she could to be a better wife and mother. She was adamant on achieving goals we set for ourselves and our family, so if you have any question or concerns before you go blasting to the public or friend get your facts straight, she didn't deserve to labeled inn that way and as her husband won't stand for it. My number is 417-664-6565, call me and ill tell you what exactly happened. Our daughter seen this comment and is pretty upset, came to me wanting to know if there any truth to it, who you are and so on... so before making anti More stupid comments call me and get the truth, I better not her any more comments like this, people need to think of our kidsand stuff too
